Campbellsville Hotel/Newton Hotel (TAC-33)

This nine-bay wide two-story common bond brick building has second floor windows with flat arches on the north and east facades and segmental arched windows on the west and south facades. It has cast iron details on the front façade with stone sills.

Built circa 1886 as the Newton Block by Sylvester and "Abe" Newton, it contained the Newton Hotel. Around 1895, there was a grocery store. In 1900, the Campbellsville Hotel was located here through 1927. Charles Wright practiced law here.

In 1908, a post office maintained space in the Main and Central corner until the 1930s when it relocated to its new building on upper Main Street. In 1917 Bryant & Shively Jewelers occupied 222. A fire burned the building in 1911 and 1934. John Turner Mardis's Restaurant occupied the building before Floy's. Floy's was remodeled in 1949 and the late-1950s. Baldwin's Department Store, Ouida's, Brack's, World Wide Fabrics, Millie's Bridal, Dollar Store, Cato's, Elegant Mother, Twice as Nice, and now Elegant Touch and Glitz have expanded into this space.
